XIII. COMMUNICATIONS:

XIV. DISCUSSIONS:

1. Waterford Township Recreation Committee
   Committeeman Yeatman voiced his concerns that this is an important Committee but that the Township should revisit the requirements (for example, meeting once a month instead of twice). Mayor Richardson noted that attendance is an issue and that the chairman of the Committee needs to inform the governing body of who is attending the meetings and who is not. Consensus of Committee was to have a letter distributed to all members to determine who intends to continue on the Committee and who is no longer interested.

2. Feline Ordinance
   Administrator Danson explained how successful the Township's "Trap, Neuter, Release" program has been in controlling the amount of feral cats in the Township. Ms. Danson continued by explaining that she has still been receiving complaints on a weekly basis regarding feral cats and suggested that the Committee look into adopting a Feline Ordinance that would help with the management of feral cat colonies. Discussion ensued and Committee members voiced concern regarding how an Ordinance would affect those who live near wooded areas and those who have farms. Committee consensus was to have Administrator Danson gather sample Ordinances from other municipalities and to have a discussion at a later time.
